Present Simple vs Present Continuous

Units 2-3

QUANDO SI USA

Present Simple → abitudini, routine, fatti sempre veri, gusti.Present Continuous → azioni in corso ADESSO o situazioni temporanee.

FORMA

	Present Simple	Present Continuous
Affermativa	I work / she works	I am working / she is working
Negativa	I don't / she doesn't work	I 'm not / she isn't working
Interrogativa	Do I / Does she work?	Am I / Is she working?

REGOLA CHIAVE: STATIVE VERBS

Alcuni verbi (di stato) non si usano al continuous: like, love, hate, want, need, know, understand, believe, prefer, seem e i verbi di percezione see, hear, taste, smell.

ESEMPI

- She usually walks to school. (abitudine)
- Look! She is walking in the rain. (adesso)
- I love this book. (NON "I am loving")

Attenzione: aggiungi -s alla 3ª persona singolare del present simple (he/she/it): he plays. Con -o, -ss, -sh, -ch, -x → -es (go → goes).

 METTITI ALLA PROVA

- Every morning my dad _____ (drive) to work.
- Listen! The birds _____ (sing) in the garden.
- I _____ (not / understand) this exercise.
- She usually _____ (wear) jeans, but today she _____ (wear) a skirt.

Soluzioni: 1 drives · 2 are singing · 3 don't understand · 4 wears / is wearing

COUNTABLE VS UNCOUNTABLE

Countable = si contano (an apple → three apples). Uncountable = non si contano (water, money, bread, sugar): sempre singolari.

QUALE QUANTIFICATORE?

Con countable (plurale)	Con uncountable
how many ?	how much ?
too many (troppi)	too much (troppo)
a few (alcuni)	a little (un po')
a lot of / lots of → con entrambi

SOME / ANY · TOO / ENOUGH

some = frasi affermative e offerte/ricieste · any = negative e domande.

too + aggettivo = troppo (It's too hot). aggettivo + enough = abbastanza (warm enough). not enough = non abbastanza.

ESEMPI

- There isn't any sugar, but there are some biscuits.
- How much water? / How many eggs?
- This coffee is too hot and it isn't sweet enough.

Attenzione: much in frasi affermative è raro: meglio a lot of (I have a lot of homework, non "much homework").

METTITI ALLA PROVA

- There aren't _____ eggs in the fridge. (some / any)
- How _____ time do we have? (much / many)
- I have _____ friends in London. (much / a lot of)
- This tea is _____ sweet; I can't drink it. (too / enough)

Soluzioni: 1 any · 2 much · 3 a lot of · 4 too

QUANDO SI USA

Azioni concluse nel passato, spesso con yesterday, last week, in 2020, two days ago.

FORMA

Forma	Regolari (+ed)	Irregolari
Affermativa	I played	I went
Negativa	I didn't play / go (verbo base!)
Interrogativa	Did you play / go?

REGOLA CHIAVE: SPELLING REGOLARI

verbo + -ed. Se finisce in -e → +d (like → liked). consonante + y → -ied (study → studied). Consonante finale spesso raddoppia (stop → stopped).

ESEMPI

- We watched a film and had pizza. (reg. + irreg.)
- She didn't come to the party.
- Did you enjoy the trip?

Errore comune: dopo did/didn't NON si usa il passato: Did you went? ❌ → Did you go? ✅

FORMA

Aggettivo	Comparativo (di più)	Superlativo (il più)
corti (tall, fast)	taller than	the tallest lunghi (modern)	more modern than	the most modern
in -y (easy, happy)	easier than	the easiest

ESEMPI

- A plane is faster than a train.
- This is the most beautiful beach in Italy.
